(Department of Industry)

RESOLUTON

New Delhi, the 28th August 1965

No. 13(2)Lic.Pol./65.—The Government of India had constituted a Committee in September, 1963 to review the operation of the controls applicable to the establishment of additional industrial capacity under the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951, the import of capital goods, the issue of capital, the in-flow of foreign investment and collaboration and to suggest such modifications as would reduce delays in decision. One of the recommendations of this Committee accepted by Government was that the Committee, with the same composition as far as may be, should be reconstituted one year after the revised procedures recommended by the Committee had been given effect to, so that the Committee could examine the results of the working of the new procedures and make further recommendations to Government. Government have accordingly decided to reconstitute the Committee to undertake a study of the working of the revised licensing procedures and to make suitable recommendations.
